Darling Barbie

Here are some enclosures!

- (1) Letter (rather difficult to read) from Graham Smallbone. Did you get a chance to talk with him at the Festival? I am staying two nights with him somewhere on the way down to the ICC. (2) Letter from Joan Trinkle. I had a long phone conversation with her; by chance it happened to be her birthday! I was able to tell her that I had spent a night with Meave Kenny & Peter in Brisbane in 1971. But she has no idea, any more than we have, what has become of Peter. (3) Letter from Milly; it is interesting about Casals talking to her about Mummy - obviously a follow-up for 'Gosh, you are missed'; she evidently made an impression on him! And the Auntie Elsie connection is <sup>(interesting)</sup>

A change of plan about the Memorial Concert for Mummy: Steven unfortunately cannot manage end of October (which would have been ideal, coming so close to Ludgershall - Oct. 27). So we have provisionally advanced Oct 6, 7, or 8: we don't know exactly which yet: but Frances, Lucy, & Christina are all free then: and I can change my dates for France. But I don't know if you would be able to manage that?

I must stop now: I have got to get Lucy to Berwick tomorrow morning to catch the 9.17, then on driving on, having lunch with Julie Simmonds (née Sargent) on my way to Oakham.

Best Love Barbie.

- (4) Photo. Taken in 1987. How is Heino? It is a nice one of Mummy.
